

Home Education Instructional Program

Provider Participation Agreement

This document must be signed by the owner of the Home Education Instructional Program. If another individual oversees the administration of the Home Education Instructional Program for students participating in the Family Empowerment Scholarship for Students with Unique Abilities (FES-UA) or Personalized Education Program (PEP) Scholarships, that individual must also sign this document.

To be an eligible expense for FES-UA or PEP funds, the program must:

- Be a program selected by the parent as a part of his or her home education or PEP Scholarship student's parent-directed instruction.
- Provide courses and/or activities for home education students that enhance or enrich the student's learning opportunities;
- Submit program descriptions of courses and/or activities; and,
- Be a business organization (tuition and fees cannot be paid to an individual, except for regional program directors or designated liaisons of national home educational communities).

Private schools, public or charter schools and full-time private tutoring programs are not considered Home Education Instructional Programs.

Programs that do not meet the above requirements may be eligible under other expense categories. Additional information about requirements for service providers is available in the program handbooks and purchasing guides.

☒ I certify that I have read and understand Step Up For Students' policies and procedures. I understand that failure to abide by these policies and procedures may result in a loss of payment or loss of eligibility as a participating program for the FES-UA or PEP Scholarships.
